

Welcome to the Vance minute. I'm Joe B. Wiles with the Public Affairs Office...

Airman 1st Class (Rig-ah-BUR-to) Navarro is Team Vance's newest air traffic controller to earn his five-level in training. That qualifies him to work a scope without direct supervision.

Airman Navarro now joins the men and women in the 71st Operations Support Squadron who proudly wear the air traffic controller badge.

Lieutenant Colonel Chad White retired from active duty during a ceremony held July 25th in the 8th Flying Training Squadron. An instructor pilot in the T-6A Texan II aircraft, Colonel White was the training flight commander.

Also retiring from active duty during a ceremony held July 23rd at the Vance Club, is Master Sgt. Justin Werner, a 22-year Air Force veteran. He served as the superintendent in the Staff Judge Advocate office at Vance.

As the summer heats up, remember this resiliency tip -- Even when you can't change the weather, you can change your attitude about it.

That's your Vance Minute...have a great Air Force day.
